Reporting Period: October 1 – December 31, 2026

Document ID: RTP-FIN-2026-Q4-001

Document Classification: Internal — Confidential (Lab Simulation)

Prepared By: Finance Department

Document Status: Sample Report — Test Data

01 | Executive Summary

This quarterly financial report provides an illustrative overview of RiveraTech Protection's financial performance for the fourth quarter of 2026.

The report presents simulated revenue, operating expenses, and net income to support enterprise document management, departmental collaboration, and access-control validation within the organization's Microsoft 365 environment.

All figures are fictional and do not represent actual business transactions.

02 | Financial Performance Overview

Financial Metric	Q4 2026
Total Revenue	$125,000
Operating Expenses	($82,000)
Net Income	$43,000
Operating Profit Margin	34.4%

All amounts are denominated in USD. Operating profit margin is calculated as net income divided by revenue for this simplified simulation.

03 | Financial Analysis

Revenue Performance

Simulated quarterly revenue totaled $125,000, representing the financial activity of the fictional reporting scenario.

Operating Expenses

Total simulated operating expenses amounted to $82,000, equivalent to 65.6% of reported revenue.

Net Income

The organization recorded simulated net income of $43,000, resulting in a 34.4% margin for the reporting period.

04 | Information Security & Access Control

Resource: Finance Department SharePoint Site

Authorized Security Group: SG-Finance-Employees

SharePoint Permission Level: Read

Access Control Model: Group-Based Authorization

Access to the Finance Department site is configured through Microsoft Entra security group membership and SharePoint permissions, following the principle of least privilege.

The intended authorization model grants Finance employees read-only access while restricting access for employees outside the authorized department.

Permission checks in the lab confirmed Read access for the Finance test user and no site permissions for the HR test user. Direct document access tests remain pending.

05 | Document Control & Confidentiality

This document is designated for internal use within the RiveraTech Protection Microsoft 365 training environment.

It must not be interpreted as an actual company financial statement, audited report, or independently enforced Microsoft Purview sensitivity classification.

Confidentiality Notice: The information contained in this document is fictional and intended exclusively for cybersecurity training, identity management exercises, and SharePoint access-control testing.
